Last year over 1,000 walkers, runners, and children participated in the 12th Annual Birthday Bash & Dash held on July 4, 2019 which would have been Sophie's sixteenth birthday. This event is a major fundraiser benefiting Smiles For Sophie Forever, a foundation created in memory of four-year-old Sophie Quayle, who lost her battle with brain cancer, after a valiant fight, on October 6, 2007.

Commemorate Sophie’s birthday. Celebrate our nation’s freedom. Help create freedom from pediatric brain cancer.

In the past 12 years, SFSF has raised and donated over $1.2 million to further its tri-fold mission.

Proceeds will once again support SFSF, a tax-exempt 501 (c)(3) organization dedicated to:

- Raising awareness of pediatric brain cancer
- Funding research for its cure
- Supporting St. Jude, where Sophie was treated
- Helping families affected by pediatric brain cancer

Visit our website smilesforsophieforever.org for more details, to register and to read more about Sophie and the Foundation.
